

Acknowledgments

I want to place at the top of my list of acknowledgements That which is All things, and which is the Source of all things, including this thesis. I bow down to the highest of all, The Source, the Aadi Yogi for giving me the insight, will and persistence to choose the path of research.

I want to express my profound gratefulness to my advisor and mentor, Dr. Anand Krishnan Plappally. I would like to thank him for his invaluable time, suggestions, guidance, insights and encouragement during this period of more than 3 years. Working under him has improved my research and teaching skills. Apart from academics, I have learnt and acquired some of his enormously positive traits like keeping things simple, being happy in every situation and doing things to develop local rural community. The lessons learnt working with him will be extremely useful as I move in life.

I would like to thank Dr. B. Rabindra (Associate Professor, Mechanical Engineering), Dr. Chironjoy Chattopadhyay (Assistant Professor, Computer Science, IIT Jodhpur), Dr. Suril V. Shah (Assistant Professor, Mechanical Engineering Department, IIT Jodhpur), Dr. Kaushal Desai (Assistant Professor, Mechanical Engineering Department, IIT Jodhpur), Dr. Vidya Sarweswaran (Assistant Professor, Humanities and Social Sciences Department, IIT Jodhpur) and Dr. Kshema Prakash (Deputy Librarian, IIT Jodhpur) for work inspiration.

I would like to thank technical staff from Materials Research Centre (MNIT Jaipur), scientists from RRCAT Indore (Dr. Ashish Agarwal, Balwant Singh sir and Dr. Manoj Tiwari), Dr. Usha K. Aravind from M.G University Kottayam for their invaluable assistance, intellectual discussions and for providing lab facilities to characterize the samples.

I express thanks to the colleagues of my research group, Raj Kumar Satankar (Ph.D.) and Sandeep (Ph.D.). Many thanks to Lovelesh (JRF) for been there for providing key inputs, and for all the great times. Special thanks to Devaiyah Sir, Praveen Sir and Bhagywardhan Sir for resolving issues related to work in the mechanical engineering workshop.

I want to thank India Network foundation for providing a travel grant to present research work at the 2016 MRS Fall Exhibit and Meeting at Boston, Massachusetts, U.S.A.

I want to deeply acknowledge a terrific team of my mother (Aayi – Anjali Kaurwar), father (Baaba – Aniruddha Kaurwar) and younger brother (Bhai – Anand Kaurwar), as three of them were clear, firm and very supportive in my decision to choose Ph.D. when I was 3 years away from thirty. I am deeply grateful to these three of them for being the pillars of strength, unconditional love and continuous motivation.

Special thanks to my best friend and partner (Abhineet Nighojkar) for his constant support and encouragement during the journey. I am deeply thankful for his patience, love and support during the last stages of the Ph.D. His positive attitude and understanding served as a catalytic agent in facing the critical phases of Ph.D.

I am thankful to my hostel roommates Anoopta, Divya, Jyoti and Neelam for their sisterly love, unconditional care, help and support during the journey. I feel fortunate to meet and associate with wonderful mates – Sana, Shruti, Poonam, Sonu and Dharmesh Ji who influenced me to become a better human being. I want to thank my friends – Khushbu, Sakshi and Vaishali for all their efforts to make me laugh during tough moments, love, encouragement and support.

I want to extend deep gratitude to fellow bloggers and writers: Leo babauta from Zen habits for positive influence on building good habits, Raam Dev from raam.org to introduce philosophy of minimalism, Rujuta Diwekar for inspiring me to adopt a healthy life style, Mridulla Harshwardhan (Naaz) for her beautiful poems and stories that kept the romance alive in me, thanks to Dr. Amit Tripathi , Nithya Shanti, Jaggi Vasudev and Gopal Gaur Ji for their spiritual motivation. Much thanks to my life coach and farmer Sukhi Longia for inspiring me to take charge of my life and think right thoughts.

Infinite thanks to Maavshi (Sonali Wakdey) for being there as the closest pal since my marriage. Her unconditional love, motherly affection and never-ending patience to listen to my every bit of stupid things like a friend has encouraged me to stay focused and motivated during the journey.

I also thank in-laws house, especially, Mother in-law (Mummy- Archana Nighojkar), Father in-law (Papa -Avinash Nighojkar), Sister in-law (Vahini - Suwarna Nighojkar), Brother in law (Dada - Abhijeet Nighojkar), Elder sister (Taai - Abha Bhalerao) and Jija Ji (Sanjeev Bhalerao) for their unfailing love and moral support.

Finally, I would like to thank my niece Vallari, my nephews - Anuj & Siddhant, my cousin sisters - Janhavi, Nihira, Shankari and cousin brothers Pranav, Praveen and Vedant for being a source of great fun, warmth and joy.

Amrita Kaurwar
Ph.D. Student